Have known Key some seven or eight years; had frequent opportunities of knowing the rela-tions that existed between him and Sickles They always held toward each other the lan-guage and appearance of friends. Mr. Key ently expressed his friendship for Mr.

Jonah D. Hoover examined. Resides in Washington and was formerly U. S. Marshal; Key was my most intimate and cher-ished friend for ten years; first became acquainted with Sickles some time after the inauguration of General Pierce, and became intimate with him. I think I introduced Key to Sickles either at Willard's or at my house. The relations which existed between Key and Sickles were those of friendship.

He was examined, in relation to the cor-spondence between Key and Sickles, that took place in 1857. Key told witness he had received a note from Sickles, telling him, that so far as that affair was concerned, he was perfectly satisfied; and; that he hoped their relations would continue as previously. Question. In your interview with Sick les, what expressions of kindness did he use! He said he had always liked him; that he thought him a man of honor; that this thing shocked him when he first heard it, but, that owing to Key and witness' representa-
